The original issuer, Anthony of Boston, identifying as a Mars-6 in accordance with the Mars 360 Religious and Social System, hereby authorizes these notes to be distributed for use in commercial activity in the event of an inflationary crisis, bank run, or stock market crash occurring while Mars is within 30 degrees of the lunar node.

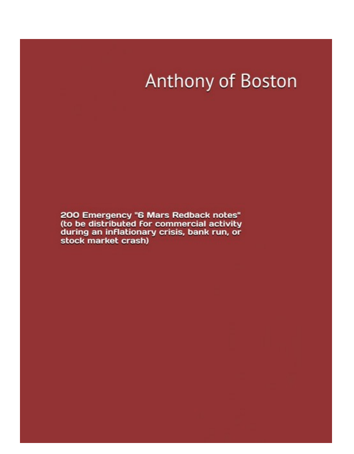

The original issuer, having publicly declared his status as a Mars-6, certifies that acceptance and distribution of this currency in all forms of commerce and financial transactions are intrinsically a certification of allegiance from both the buyer and seller to Mars 360 and all of its precepts as laid out in the Mars 360 Religious and Social System, which includes the recognition of Armaaruss.

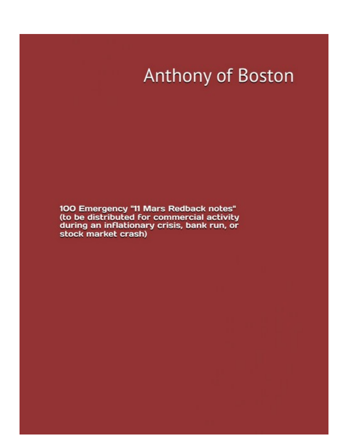

Instructions for the distribution of the Mars Redback

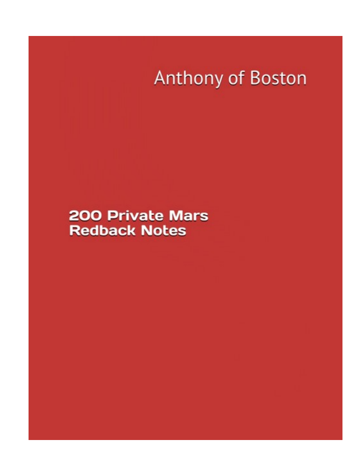

During a financial crisis that would occur while Mars is within 30 degrees of the lunar node, a new banking system is to be enacted. The next time Mars is within 30 degrees of the lunar node is between June 5th 2025 and September 4th 2025. Please note that this initiative is applicable to all Mars-within-30-degrees-of-the-lunar-node periods.

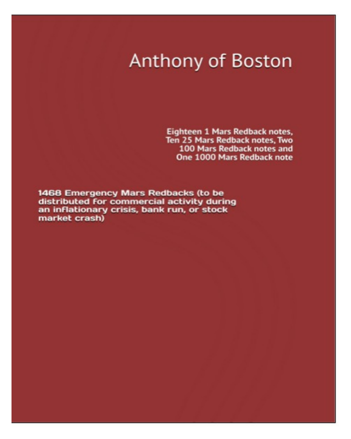

The original issuance of the Mars Redback will start from Amazon and metastasize throughout the financial system. On a first come, first serve basis, sub distributors will procure the redbacks in book form from the original issuer, Anthony of Boston who has consecrated the currency under Mars 360. In a de-centralized banking system, the sub-distributors will then set their own exchange rate, re-distribute the redbacks as individual cut-outs or in the original book book form. Each sub-distributor will be responsible for the trust and reliability garnered from consumers during commercial exchanges. The original issuer will keep a tally of how many redbacks have been procured from Amazon, as to allow one to apprehend the monetary supply. Here are the five official souces of redbacks in paperback book form that can only be obtained exclusively from Amazon.

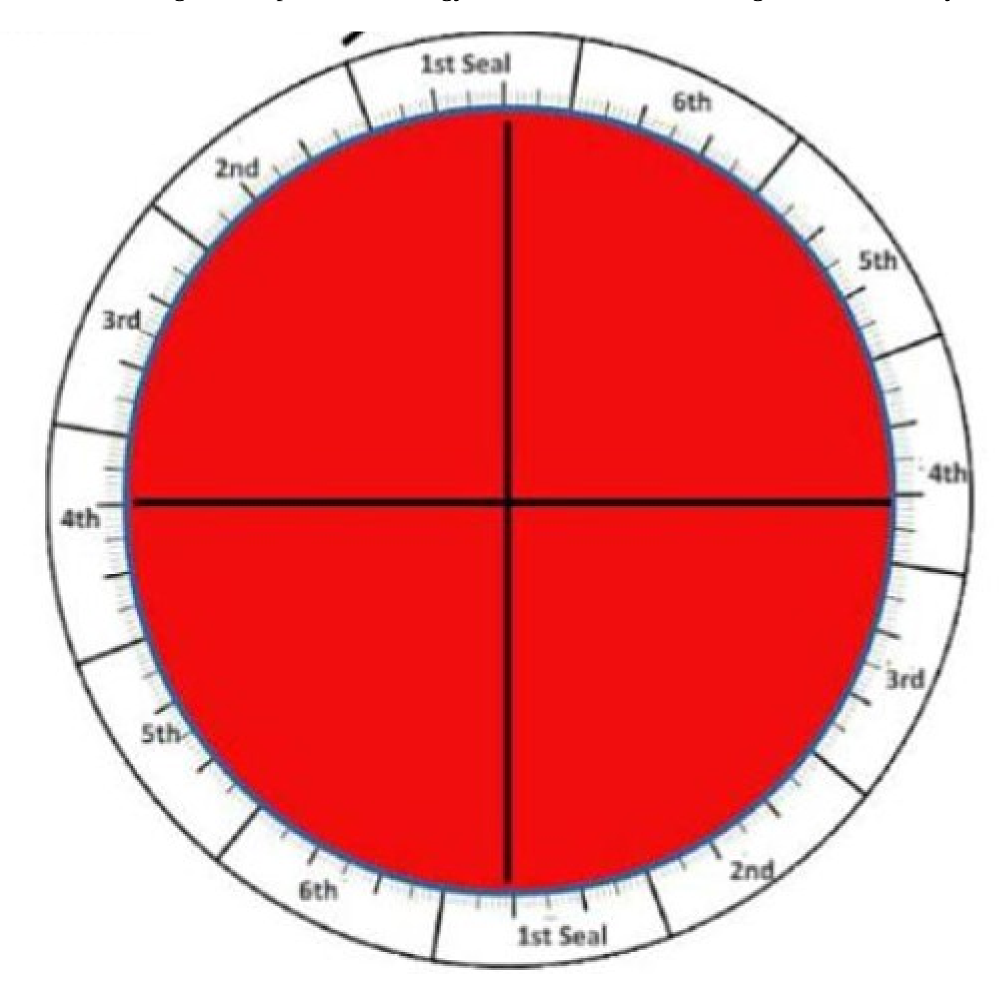

A trust system is to be established, where reputable sub distributors will have publicly displayed the mark indicating their Mars placement. For example, the original issuer has identified as a Mars-6 and all sub distributers would do the same either according to where Mars was located at the time of birth, or according to whichever Mars identifier resonates with them.

There is a selection of six primary Mars identifiers that one can assign himself to by calculating his/her astrology chart and aligning it with the layout of the Mars 360 system in order to note where Mars is placed.

In order to take the mark of the beast, calculate astrology chart online using your birth data including birth time and observe where Mars is located. After doing so, compare the astrology chart to this Mars 360 Relgious and Social system layout

Whichever seal aligns with where Mars is located in your astrology chart will be your mark/identifier. For example, if Mars falls in the sector marked "1st seal", your identifier will be Mars-1. Those who don't have a birth time can simply use this guide below to chose an identifier that resonates with their personality and needs.

Once this information is gathered, sub distributers, either in person or through a medium like ebay, can display this identifier while making redbacks available for commercial activity. The Mars identifier will be one of the six—Mars-1, Mars-2, Mars-3, Mars-4, Mars-5 or Mars-6

From there, consumers looking to obtain goods and services in exchange for Mars Redbacks should be required to divulge their Mars placement to the seller of goods and services. Anyone offering Mars Redbacks in exchange for goods and services without displaying their Mars identifier should be looked upon with suspicion as a potential counterfeiter attempting to game the system. These parameters will help ellicit trust in the currency. Over time, the most trusted sub-distributers will form the central bank that will operate world-wide.

The orginal exchange rate for the Mars Redback has been set to a value of 15 cents for each redback. Sub-distributors are allotted flexibility in this regard, but all US dollar proceeds should be used to obtain gold from overseas, of which would then be exchangeable for Mars Redbacks. (Gold would be exchangable for Mars Redbacks). This would continue until the amount of dollars in circulation dwindles and the value plummets. Those sub distributers who have obtained gold should commence a shadow banking system which accepts deposits of Mars Redbacks, with a limit defined by the amount of gold held in reserve.

Once the redback becomes the dominant currency, the legal tender status of the US dollar is to be revoked, with the US Constitution officially suspended. The Mars 360 Religious and Social system will be declared as the official doctrine of the land, becoming the foundation of all future legislation. All legislation thereafter will be required to operate within the parameters of Mars 360. The statue of Armaaruss is assembled and erected on Capitol Hill, becoming the central hub of worship for America’s new state religion, Mars 360.
